Pierre Hermé Paris × Hyatt Regency Tokyo

Introducing the Second Edition of the Signature Afternoon Tea Collaboration

Celebrating the Memorable Flavors of Summer

Hyatt Regency Tokyo (Shinjuku, Tokyo) is delighted to announce the launch of the second edition of its collaborative afternoon tea with world-renowned pâtissier Pierre Hermé Paris—known as the “Picasso of the pastry world”— To celebrate the opening of our new social hub Nineteen Eighty Lounge & Bar, we have collaborated with Pierre Hermé Paris to deliver an elevated afternoon tea experience blending timeless elegance with a fresh modern perspective. The experience will be available from Friday, August 1 through Tuesday, September 30, 2025, at the newly opened Nineteen Eighty Lounge and Bar located beneath the hotel's three iconic Swarovski crystal chandeliers.

This summer's edition features a vibrant and refreshing selection of desserts inspired by the spirit of global summer destinations.

Highlights of the seasonal menu include Jardin de l'Atlas, a vibrant creation that captures the essence of Morocco through Pierre Hermé's signature blend of spices and floral notes.

Acapulco brings a taste of the tropics with its bright combination of pineapple, lime, and a kick of Sarawak pepper. Meanwhile, Mogador pairs the richness of milk chocolate with the tang of passion fruit in balanced harmony.

Each dessert is carefully crafted to offer guests a momentary escape to faraway summer destinations, one bite at a time.

The experience unfolds in two courses: first, five savory dishes prepared by the hotel's culinary team using seasonal ingredients, followed by an indulgent selection of eight exquisite desserts from Pierre Hermé Paris.
